the forefront whenever possible in the Fairbanks area. Ray knows that if the North Pole Community is to prosper, the area must become thought of as a vital entity rather than a bedroom community.

Ray is also active in other community organizations such as VFW, where he serves as Chaplain. Believing strongly that our children are our future, he is active in the Boys & Girls Club of Tanana Valley, serving as their Treasurer.

Ray, originally from Oregon, graduated from South Albany High School. He completed his BBA at Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma, Washington and received his graduate degree (Masters in Science; Business & Organizational Management) from University of La Verne (CA).

Ray is married to Theresa and they have three children, Kassandra, Raymond III and Jakob. His family has constantly supported him in his community endeavors.
